THE MARKET

Global digital content market is $200B, projected to grow 9% annually by 2020 to reach $259 billion.

CURRENT PROBLEMS

- Copyright violation.
- Tiring search of necessary content and its long validation.
- Price monopolization.
- High prices for customers and low royalties to authors.

OUR SOLUTIONS

- Decentralized content licensing and blockchain allows authors to protect the copyright safely and customers to guarantee uniqueness of purchased works.
- The use of crypto currency eliminates a layer of centralized financial intermediary, thereby reducing commissions and increasing value share for users.
- Artificial Intelligence of BitImage verifies uploaded digital media in a few minutes and can provide analytics to monetize the content as soon as possible. On-demand work implementation will allow buyers to order new unique content fast.
- The platform will create a free market economy where the price of content is determined individually.

TOKEN ECONOMICS

BitImage token or BIM is a cryptographic token of the ERC-20 standard based on the Ethereum blockchain. It is required to purchase or exchange digital media content on the platform.
